Subject: PCN#01A-16 : Special Requirements for HDCP 2.X Products

Dear Lattice Customer,

Lattice Semiconductor is implementing changes to enable greater traceability of all of our products incorporating High-Bandwidth Digital Content Protection (HDCP) Version 2.X content protection. For this purpose we are establishing unique, customer-specific Ordering Part Numbers (OPNs).

Description

Lattice is implementing customer specific ordering part numbers (OPN) for HDCP 2.x products to insure the Lattice HDCP 2.x products are sold through approved DCP licensed supply chains.

Affected Products and MOQ (Minimum Order Quantity)

The chart below reflects the Ordering Part Numbers (OPNs) affected by this PCN.

Customers purchasing the HDCP2.x products will be held to a minimum order quantity.

Customer Ordering Part Numbers, Order terms and Conditions

- Customer must be a licensed DCP adopter to purchase HDCP 2.X products. (www.digital-cp.com/)
- All orders that meet MOQ will require a customer specific OPN for purchase of product. Please contact your local sales representative or distributor to apply for your specific OPN.
- Customer specific OPN's will be noted on sales acknowledgments, shipping documents, packaging labels and invoices only. The marking on the device will not change.
- The order terms for the customer-specific OPNs require a 60 day notice for cancellation and minimum order quantity (MOQ) will be strictly enforced.

Impact on Product Specifications

This PCN has no impact on any form, fit or functional specifications including datasheet parameters and device marking.
